FRESNO COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLSCommunity Relations
CITIZEN ADVISORY COMMITTEESCommittee Charge

When committees are appointed, committee members shall receive written information including, but not limited to:

1. The committee members' names.
2. The procedure to be used in the selection of the committee chairperson and other committee officers.
3. The name(s) and contact information of staff member(s) assigned to support the work of the committee.
4. The goals and specific charge(s) of the committee, including its topic(s) for study.
5. The specific period of time that the committee is expected to serve.
6. Legal requirements regarding meeting conduct and public notifications.
7. Resources available to help the committee perform its tasks.
8. Timelines for progress reports and/or final report.
9. Relevant County Superintendent and County Board policies and administrative regulations.

Members of advisory committees are not vicariously liable for injuries caused by the act or omission of the County Superintendent, County Board, or a committee and are not liable for injuries caused by an act or omission of a committee member acting within the scope of his/her role as a member of the committee. However, a member may be liable for injury caused by his/her own wrongful conduct. (Government Code 815.2, 820.9.)

Committees Subject to Brown Act Requirements

Committees Not Subject to Brown Act Requirements

The following committees are exempt from the Brown Act but must conform with procedural meeting requirements established in Education Code section 35147:

1. Parent advisory committee and English learner parent advisory committee established pursuant to Education Code section 52069 to review and comment on the Local Control and Accountability Plan.
2. School site councils established pursuant to Education Code sections 65000-65001 to develop and approve a school plan for student achievement.
3. School advisory committees established pursuant to Education Code section 52176 related to programs for English learners.
4. Advisory committees established pursuant to Education Code section 54425(b) related to compensatory education.
5. Any advisory committee established pursuant to Education Code section 54444.2 related to migrant education programs.
6. School committees established pursuant to Education Code section 11503 related to parent involvement.
7. Advisory committees established pursuant to Education Code sections 56190-56194 related to special education.

Meetings of the above councils or committees shall be open to the public. Any member of the public shall have the opportunity to address the council or committee during the meeting on any item within its jurisdiction. Notice of the meeting shall be posted at the school site or other appropriate accessible location at least 72 hours before the meeting, specifying the date, time, and location of the meeting and containing an agenda that describes each item of business to be discussed or acted upon. (Education Code 35147.)

The above councils or committees shall not take action on any item not listed on the agenda unless all members present unanimously find that there is a need to take immediate action and that this need came to the council's or committee's attention after the agenda was posted. In addition to addressing items on the agenda, members of the council, committee, or public may ask questions or make brief statements that do not have a significant effect on students in schools operated by the County Superintendent or County Superintendent employees, or that can be resolved solely by providing information. (Education Code 35147)

Any council or committee violating the above procedural requirements must, at the demand of any person, reconsider the item at the next meeting, first allowing for public input on the item. (Education Code 35147.)

Any materials provided to council or committee shall be made available to any member of the public upon request pursuant to the California Public Records Act. (Education Code 35147, Government Code 6250-6270)
