At the annual organization meeting, the County Board shall elect among its members a president and another as vice president to provide leadership on behalf of the County Board and the educational community it serves.

President

The president shall preside at all meetings of the County Board, maintain order, and enforce the rules of the County Board at all meetings. Robert's Rules of Order, Revised Edition, shall prevail.

The president shall have all the rights of any member of the County Board, including the right to move, second, discuss, and vote on any and all matters before the County Board.

The president shall:

1. Call a meeting to order at the appointed time.
2. Announce the business to come before the County Board in its proper order.
3. Enforce the County Board's policies relating to the conduct of meetings and help ensure compliance with applicable requirements of the Brown Act.
4. Recognize persons who desire to speak.
5. Explain what the effect of a motion would be if it is not clear to every member.
6. Restrict discussion to the question when a motion is before the County Board.
7. Rule on issues of parliamentary procedure.
8. Put motions to a vote and clearly state the results of the vote.
9. Be responsible for the orderly conduct of all County Board meetings.

Unless the County Board directs or delegates otherwise, the president shall sign all instruments, acts, and orders necessary to carry out state requirements and the actions of the County Board.

The president may call special meetings whenever, in his/her judgement, the exigencies of the schools require them to be held. (Education Code 1012.) Upon the request of any three members, in writing, the president shall call a special meeting of the County Board. (Education Code 1012.)

Vice President

When the president resigns or is absent or disabled, the vice president shall perform the president’s duties. When both the president and the vice president are absent or disabled, the members present shall, by majority vote of those present, elect a president pro tempore to perform the president’s duties.

Secretary/Executive Officer

The County Superintendent shall act as ex officio secretary and executive officer of the County Board. As ex officio secretary and executive officer, the County Superintendent shall:

1. In conjunction with the president of the Board, construct the County Board agenda.

2. Prepare and handle the County Board minutes.

3. Act as custodian for all County Board records and documents.

4. Prepare a tentative calendar of County Board meeting dates for the year next ensuing for the consideration of the County Board at its annual organization meeting.

5. Submit to the president of the County Board all correspondence addressed to the president or the County Board.

6. Handle any other duties or activities as authorized by the Board.
